Message From Director's Desk

Hello,

As Panache celebrates its 8th Diwali this year, it gives me great pleasure to introduce a platform where in we showcase all our students achievements & progress, the magazine gives an insight into life at Panache. This is our endeavour to keep all our 5 centers connected and on the same page.

A platform where our alumni encourage and motivate our present students with their placements and achievements. A platform where imaginations fly high & sky is the limit. So with great pride & pleasure, I present to you the 1st Edition of our in-house monthly digital magazine "Le Ciel" The Sky.

Fall in love with beauty of DIVAR ISLAND

Divar is a riverine island created by the major river in Goa, Mandovi. Situated at a distance of 10 kms from the capital Panjim, it is a heaven for wandering souls. With its dense woods, evergreen agricultural fields, ever-filled water boards, traditional churches and Portuguese-style vintage houses, the island provides tranquility and serenity against the loud and lousy city life. A journey to the island in itself is a wonderful experience as travelling by ferry is the only way to reach the island.

The island is still unexploited by commercialization, hence there are not many things to do, except for fishing, exploring nature, visiting the churches and temples. Bonderam is the biggest festival of Divar, which is celebrated on the 4th Saturday of August every year. If you feel drained by the hippie party culture of Goa or if you love to watch the sunset on the banks of River Mandovi, Divar island is the best place to hit up.
